SUPERIOR COURT.

Wish him to tell State Policeman Hurley.

State Policeman Robert T. Harley of Hartford was sworn ami said that he had investigated the case in his capacity and had visited the Colburn house and found the oil and that Mrs. Colburn had given him the three matches found in the house by her. He later found some of the stolen goods in this city and arrested the accused in Stafford Springs and that she told him that she had only gone into the house on one occasion and by means of a key. Found some of the goods at the home of Mrs. Skinner's mother in Southbridge, having gone there with a letter from the accused instructing her mother to hand over everything and avoid getting into difficulties. Accused had told him that she entered the house in the daytime and had spilled the oil.

State Attorney Searls stated that Henry was accused of having assaulted Thomas Osier of Killingly and that the latter had been summored to appear as a witness summonsed to appear as a witness Wednesday but had failed to do so. The attorney thought that, while the case was of a minor character, some case was of a minor character, some action, should be brought againsst osier. Judge Robinson ordered a capias to be issped and Osier brought before the court Friday to show cause why he did not put in an appearance on Wednesday.

Judge Robinson sentenced Henry to Alice Skinner's Case Tried. The case of state vs. Alice Skinner, charged with attempt at arson at Hampton, on August 18, 1909, was taken up before Judge Robinson and a jury at 1.30 o'clock in the after-

Harriet Colburn testified to owning the house in Hampton that was burglarized and broken into during the month of August while she was away, for she found things badly littered up upon her return. She said that there was oil upon the floor, in four of the rooms, and in one room there was a basket full of carpet rags saturated with oil. Mats upon the floors were also soaked with oil and some had been turned up and she found burned matches near them. At the time she went away the windows were nailed down and all the doors nailed up except the front one, which was locked with a key. Upon her return the house showed evidences of having been broken into and a number of things stelen.

Bureaus and trunks had been overhauled and silk dresses and the best of everything taken away. Upon going upstairs great disorder confronted her. A suit case, watch, knife, shirewalsts, dainty aprons and other small articles were stolen. She said that no one person could have carried off all the things that were stolen at one trip. A notice has been posted in the Danielson postoffice announcing that a civil service examination for appointment to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Shippee will be held at Danielson on Nov. 27.

There has been some talk of closing the office and caring for the business of it by means of the rural free delivery route recently established from the Danielson office, but it is believed that this move will be objected to by many of the people of South Killingly, as they prefer to have the office to having a rural service.

structure of hallowed memories, sur-rounded by the burial place of those who worshipped there in past cen-turies, the faithful of the Episcopa parishes in Brooklyn and Danielson have gathered to assist in a service that has always been more than ordinarily impressive.

Names familiarly associated with the history of Windham county are inseparably connected with this church and arapty connected with this charch and are carved in the stones over the last resting places of the dead in the burial plots near by. There one may read the names of patriots, defenders of their country, clergymen, and of those who helped wrest this territory from its wild, unbroken state and labored to make it the peaceful, prosperous country it is today.

Its preservation and more frequent use are matters that appeal to many and Mr. Peck's proposal has been received with enthusiasm. Mr. Peck has but recently come to Brooklyn, succeeding Rev. Samuel Jarvis, who has always taken a great interest in the always taken a great interest in the church, a fact that was spoken of by Mr. Peck at the All Sains' day service on Monday. The intent of the latter is to perpetuate and extend the plan of Mr. Jarvis' relative to the church. of Mr. Jarvis' relative to the church. His desire is to reproduce in all exactness the pulpit formerly used there, or, if possible, to again secure the original. An exact likeness of the pulpit may be seen in another very old church in Newport. Mr. Peck would also like to have reproduced several old settees that have been removed from the balcony of the church. The collection taken at the service on Monday was very generous and is to be used for the purposes mentioned and others of a minor nature.

Mr. Peck also announced, in connection with his plans for the more frequent use of the church, that some

ENDS KIDNEY AND BLADDER MISERY

The Most Severe Backache Vanishes and Your Kidneys Act Fine After Taking the First Few Doses of Pape's Diufetic.

If you take several doses of Pape's Diuretic, all backache and distress from out-of-order kidneys or bladder trouble will vanish, and you will feel fine.

Lame back, painful stitches, rheumatism, nervous headache, dizziness, irritability, sleeplessness, inflamed or swellen eyelids, worm-out, sick feeling and other symptoms of sluggish, inactive kidneys disappear.

Uncontrollable, smarting, frequent urination (especially at night) and all bladder misery ends.

This unusual preparation goes at once to the disordered kidneys, bladder and urinary system and distributes its healing, cleansing and vitalizing influence directly upon the or, gans and glands affected, and completes the cure before you realize it.

The moment you suspect any kidney
